ESSAY QUESTIONS

Please attach an essay about yourself. Your essay will help us get to know you better, so please address the following points thoroughly. We ask that you use examples and explanations as much as possible. Please type your essay; it should be about 8 - 10 pages long.

1. What are your reasons for wanting to become a Franciscan Volunteer Minister? Describe experiences that have led you to this choice. What do you hope to accomplish and what do you want to gain?
2. Franciscan Volunteer Ministers live in community, sharing household chores, meals, celebrations, liturgies, prayer and more. What are your expectations and apprehensions of living in community?
3. How would you describe your personal faith journey and how has it led you to apply to the Franciscan Volunteer Ministry?
4. What is the role of personal and communal prayer in your life and what are your expectations for personal and communal prayer in the Franciscan Volunteer Ministry?
5. St. Francis was committed to simple living and living in solidarity with the poor. What does simple living mean to you? How does a simple lifestyle relate to your service with the poor? What changes in your lifestyle will you need to make in order to live simply, and how do you envision making those changes living on a small monthly stipend?
6. What do you most enjoy about interacting with other people and what is most difficult for you in forming relationships with others?
7. How do you deal with conflict between you and another person? Give an example.
8. How do you deal with difficult situations or decisions? Do you talk with other people, pray, journal, etc.? Explain.
9. Have there been any significant changes, events, or transitions in your family and in your life that may have shaped you?
10. Please add any other information you think would help us get to know you.
